

BRITISH NATIONAL REGISTER OF ADVANCED HYPNOTHERAPISTS MEMBERSHIP REQUEST FORM

THE BRITISH NATIONAL REGISTER OF ADVANCED HYPNOTHERAPISTS is a nationwide register of advanced professional Hypnotherapists and trainers committed to providing the most effective treatment, delivered at the highest professional standard, to their patients.

Since its foundation in 1990 it has been the intention of the NRAH to enhance the public awareness of the benefits of Hypnosis/Hypnotherapy by portraying a professional image of Hypnotherapists and Hypnosis.

Membership is conditional on

- Applicant must be registered with the CNHC. Registration can be arranged if not already registered. (See NRAH website for CNHC application form)
- Applicants must hold a qualification in either Hypnotherapy, NLP or Psychotherapy and have been in practice working with Hypnosis for a minimum of two years. With the exception of the medical profession/complimentary therapies, working part time as a therapist whilst holding down another (unrelated) career is not acceptable.
- Applicants must be able to show a commitment to their own ongoing professional development through such things as attending advanced/master class training courses, and to guarantee that they will continue with their ongoing professional development. A minimum of 30 training credits in any 12 month period are needed to maintain membership. (see website for details)
- Applicants/members must hold an up to date public indemnity/liability insurance for a minimum of two million pounds (£2.m)
- Applicants must supply the name and address of two unrelated people who can give a reference, one of whom must be in full time practice working with Hypnosis, or the name of an existing NRAH member who is willing to sponsor the application.

Successful applicants will receive a certificate and be entitled to use NRAH or MNRAH after their name and on advertising. Their details will be published on the NRAH website. Please mention if you specialise in a subject, such as stress management or pain control, it will be entered on the register. (see website for categories)

All members must adhere to our Code of Ethics.
Membership fee: £60 plus a one off registration fee of £15.
