"The course has enhanced both my ability to work with couples and my general practice skills. I have no hesitation in recommending this training programme." G Britton

COUPLES COUNSELLING COURSE

22-26 April, 01-02 June

£665

Developing your existing counselling skills in this intense 1 week course in the core principles of this specialist area through both theory and experiential exercises followed by a Feedback Weekend, to reflect and build on the skills gained within a supervised environment.

This course tackles the deeper issues of dysfunctional relationships and working together as a triad to problem solve, under restricted time-constraints and whilst under pressure. It develops the importance and awareness of the individual within the couple mindset, offers a better understanding of the counsellors own position and enhances their effectiveness within this relationship.
